(Special Despatch to the Chicago Tribune.)

WASHINGTON, July 3.

The President to-day sent to the Senate the nomination of James O. Broadhead, to be District Attorney of Colorado, Gen. Sheridan, to be Colonel of Infantry, Colonel J. S. Hasler, to be Colonel of Engineers, Colonel Thomas, to be Colonel of Ordnance, Lieutenant-Colonel Ingalls, to be Colonel of Quartermaster's Department, and Major Otis Howard to be Commissioner of Freedmen.

The Committee on the Army Appropriation Bill will report it to the House to-morrow morning, and will move it on Thursday. The House committee intend to be brought against the time the Senate will, and to sit out of the 4th until the House will be definitely upon to the report.

The progress of the House on the Tariff Bill has been very slow for the last two days, and the amendments to-day, with the bill generally laid over. Nearly all the items of the Whole, the wool, coal, and iron schedules are, however, among those yet to be acted upon, and these must necessarily be made lengthy, though the time could be greatly by some debate nearly the whole of one session. The Ways and Means Committee promised to report the bill to the House in time to be passed upon the 4th of July, but the Committee of
